

Title: Certified Cleantech Project Manager (CCPM)

Date/Time: Wednesday, July 30, 3:45 PM – 4:30 PM

Location: Renaissance Austin Hotel

Description: The Certified Cleantech Project Manager (CCPM) Program offers intensive training in project planning and management focusing on the renewable energy industry. The program covers 10 key areas of project management relating to clean energy technology projects: clean tech business, strategic planning, human resources management, technology management, quality control management, procurement management, financial management, clean tech laws and regulations, time management, and communication management.

Presenter:

Lloyd Tran, Clean Tech Institute